

It is now possible to offset redundancy refunds that are due from the Department of Enterprise, Trade & Employment against outstanding taxes. This is welcome news for Employers who are facing up to a 10 month delay in receiving these refunds. Contact the Collector General for more information on the procedure.